- Increase one ability score of your choice by 1, to a maximum of 20.
- When you 'Shape Self', you can also adjust your height between Medium and Small.
- Your pseudopod can be used to make unarmed strikes. When you hit with it, the strike deals 1d6 + your Strength modifier bludgeoning damage.

- Whenever you have advantage on an attack roll using Dexterity, Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma, you can reroll one of the dice once.

Prepseudohensilepod

Prerequisite: Plasmoid

Plasmoids are amorphous beings. Their limbs are strong and flexible. On occasion, due to some biological anomaly, a plasmoid's pseudopod becomes more pliable upon reaching adulthood (around the age of twenty years). You gain the following benefits:

- Increase your Strength or Dexterity score by 1, to a maximum of 20.
- You can use your pseudopod to lift, drop, hold, push, or pull an object or a creature; grapple someone; manipulate an object; open an unlocked door or container, stow or retrieve an item from an open container, or pour out the contents of a container. The pseudopod can't activate magic items or carry more than 10 pounds. Your DM might allow other simple tasks to be added to that list.
- Your pseudopod can also be used to make unarmed strikes with finesse and reach. When you hit with it, the strike deals 1d4 + your Strength or Dexterity modifier bludgeoning damage.

- Increase your Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma score by 1, to a maximum of 20.
- Light Sleeper. When you take a long rest, you must spend at least six hours in an inactive, motionless state, rather than sleeping. In this state, you appear inert, but it doesn't render you unconscious.

When you are traveling alone for an extended period of time (one hour or more), you can move stealthily at a normal pace. (See chapter 8 of the Player's Handbook for information about travel pace.)
- You learn the Vanish cantrip and can cast it without requiring concentration. You learn the Wristpocket spell and can cast it without expending a spell slot or requiring concentration. Once you cast this spell in this way, you can't do so again until you finish a long rest. You can also cast this spell normally using spell slots you have of the appropriate level. These spells' spellcasting ability is the ability increased by this feat.

To receive this bonus, the creature must be able to understand what you're saying.
- You can accurately recall anything you have seen or heard within the past month. Whenever you finish a long rest, you gain proficiency in one skill of your choice and with one weapon or tool of your choice, selected from the Player's Handbook, as you draw upon the reservoir of experiences connected to your past lives. - Engrossing Discourse. If you spend 1 minute talking to someone who can understand what you say, you can make a Charisma (Persuasion) check contested by the creature's Wisdom (Insight) check. You can use your panpipes in this way a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus (but no more than once per turn), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a short rest.
- One creature of your choice within 60 feet that can hear the pipes must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw (DC 8 + your proficiency bonus + the ability modifier of the score increased by this feat) or be affected as described below. Other satyrs and creature that can't be charmed are unaffected.
 - Charming Melody. The creature is charmed for 1 minute. If you or any of your companions harms the creature, the effect on it ends immediately.
 - Frightening Strain. The creature is frightened for 1 minute.
 - Gentle Lullaby. The creature falls asleep and is unconscious for 1 minute. The effect ends if the creature takes damage or if someone takes an action to shake the creature awake.
